

Pauline Walters Memorial Award Application

The Pauline Walters Memorial Award grants financial support to an individual or organization that educates and inspires our community to engage in preservation and presentation of Washtenaw County history. The maximum award amount is $500. All submissions must be emailed and/or postmarked by April 30, 2020

This award was established in the memory and honor of Pauline Walters. She was a member of the Washtenaw County Historical Society, served as President and Corresponding Secretary. She loved history, volunteering, helping others and the Museum on Main Street.
