

Come and experience a story...

...either from your childhood or from earlier times. We have four exhibits a year on a variety of topics including kitchens, old bridges, politics, weddings, 150 Years of the YMCA, one-room schools, 100 years of Psychiatry at the University of Michigan, Christmas toys of today and yesterday, and much much more.

The famous 1948 Tucker Sedan produced in Chicago, but conceived in Ypsilanti.

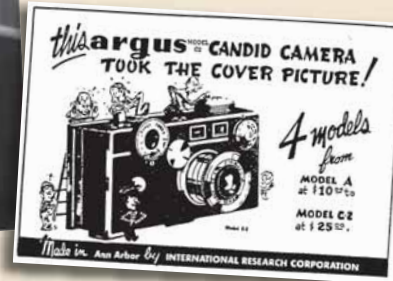

Real Rosie Riveters building a B-24 at Willow Run during World War II.

Playwright Arthur Miller retained a close association with the University of Michigan and Ann Arbor throughout his life.

Ann Arbor's very own brand of lard from Steeb Bros.

The Argus Camera had its roots in Ann Arbor.

The Salk polio vaccine was announced in Ann Arbor on April 12, 1955.

Hoover Ball Bearing Paper Weight

Inexpensive Kadette Radios were manufactured for the masses in Ann Arbor by the International Radio Corporation.

The Museum on Main Street has been telling these stories since 1999, when we opened in a restored 1830s house which was moved in 1990 to prevent it from being demolished. The Washtenaw County Historical Society, which operates the Museum, has been collecting "things" and stories for much longer -150 years as of 2007.

